About a Hebrew way of Life

Without an understanding of Hebrew Culture, Custom and Idioms
we have little context for the text and

“A text without a context
is only a pretext”

Our story starts in the Father's garden with the first Adam - a gardener - and a woman, a tree, fruit, the accuser, temptation/ betrayal, a fall, a curse of thorns; the man and woman are evicted and death follows. Gen 3:17-18 God places Cherubim angels at the east of the garden to "keep the way". Gen.3:24

The story continues with the last Adam going to a garden where the accuser tempts Him, Jn 18:1 He does not fall BUT He is betrayed. Lk 22:3,48 He also is evicted from the garden and goes to His death. This Adam though, takes the curse of thorns and wears it as a crown; He dies on a tree and is buried - in a garden tomb.

A woman re-enters the garden, sees two angels and someone she thinks is - the gardener! The angels were not there to “keep the way” closed - but OPEN. Sin entered the world because a woman took “fruit” OFF a tree; the first Adam listened and fell. The last Adam does not give into temptation and redeems ALL things by putting the fruit of the fall - sin, back ON the tree. The risen Y’shua does not show Himself to the men who came to the tomb<sup>Jn20</sup> but chooses to wait for her; thus the last Adam’s first act is to restore the woman.

Our story ends ~ in a garden with a man, His bride and a tree - but the accuser and curse are gone.<sup>Rev21-22</sup>
